HUGH WEBER — PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

As president of business operations, oversees all aspects of Devils Arena Entertainment, including the franchise's business operations and Prudential Center. Weber has a track record of creating fan-friendly, partnership-driven and "elite" best-in-class organizations.

Most recently, Weber was president and alternate governor of the NBA's New Orleans Hornets. In his seven-year tenure, the organization experienced success on and off the court.

The team achieved record-setting ticket sales and sponsorship numbers while creating a number of significant community initiatives. Through the tireless efforts of every employee, coach and player, the Hornets' organization gained long-term stability in the region under difficult circumstances.

The organization took a leading role in the renaissance of the region. In an unprecedented initiative, "100 events in 100 nights," the team executed small gatherings hosted in the homes of current season ticket holders, partners, and local businesses. Through a coordinated effort, the team secured financial success, a long-term lease with the state, and stable local ownership.

In 2010, Weber reorganized the Hornets' basketball operations, using a collaborative philosophy, defined value system, and strong work ethic as key principles. He was able to assemble one of the best young organizations in the league, described by some as an "All-Star" team. Weber brought in a dynamic, young head coach in Monty Williams, and hired General Manager Dell Demps, a prodigy from the highly-successful San Antonio Spurs organization.

Prior to his role as team president, Weber served as chief operations officer and vice president of business operations, overseeing all aspects of the New Orleans market, while the team was temporarily headquartered in Oklahoma City from 2005-2007.

Weber is a board member of a variety of community, economic development and entrepreneurship organizations, reflecting his priority to invest in the community.

Prudential Center is among the National Hockey League's newest arenas, and at the time of its opening, was the first state-of-the-art, major sports and entertainment facility to open in the New Jersey/New York metropolitan area in more than 25 years.

Kansas City-based HOK Sport+Venue+Entertainment, a renowned leader in sports facility design and construction, served as the project architect. The exterior of the building was designed by Morris Adjmi Architects of New York City, and is based on the rich history of Newark – the nation's third-oldest major city. Newark's El Taller Colaborativo, among the largest and fastest-growing minority-owned architectural firms in the northeastern United States, also collaborated on the project.

In just six years since opening its doors, Prudential Center has enjoyed a meteoric rise to the top of the sports and entertainment industry. "The Rock" is an industry leader, not only in New Jersey, but worldwide. It has also become one of the hottest music venues of its size in the United States to host Hispanic cultural shows.

Part of Newark's Downtown Core District Redevelopment Plan, Prudential Center is bound by Edison Place on the north, Lafayette Street on the south, Mulberry Street on the east, and off Broad Street on the west.

Prudential Center is located just two city blocks from Newark's Penn Station, and is among the most accessible sports venues in the country, serviced by New Jersey Transit's rail and bus lines, PATH, light rail and AMTRAK. In fact, nearly half of the arena's guests arrive by mass transit.

Prudential Center is a multi-purpose venue that holds 17,625 fans for hockey and 18,711 for basketball, serving as the home to Seton Hall University Men's Basketball. Versatile enough to hold any sized event with more loading docks and storage space than its competitors to load in back-to-back events, Prudential Center is capable of hosting concerts, mixed martial arts, boxing, skateboarding, family shows, circuses, conventions, corporate events, ice shows and more.

Over the last several years, Prudential Center has hosted the 2012 NHL Stanley Cup Finals and professional basketball games including the New Jersey Nets and the New York Liberty. Prudential Center also hosted the 2013 NHL Entry Draft, the 2011/2012 NBA Drafts, the 2011 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regionals, 2011-2013 Street League Skateboarding Championships, Rolling Stones, Taylor Swift, Bruce Springsteen, Andrea Bocelli, Bruno Mars, Foo Fighters, Cirque du Soleil, Michael Jackson-THE IMMORTAL World Tour, X Factor and American Idol auditions and McDonald's Gospelfest. The Rock has also hosted a speech by President Barack Obama and New Jersey Governor Chris Christie's Inauguration party.

The Devils' practice facility – AmeriHealth Pavilion – is located along Lafayette Street. Prudential Center is one of only two National Hockey League arenas to have a connecting practice rink, and the only building with dual locker room and training facilities. It also serves as the home to Brick City Boxing, in addition to youth, high school and adult hockey programs and Hockey In Newark.

Prudential Center features a four-level seating bowl, four sideline suites, and 2,300 seats in our two exclusive club level lounges, the Fire Lounge and Golia Ice Lounge. There are 74 suites spanning two private concourses, along with two larger party suites.

On Suite Level One, the Bud Light Goal Bar overlooks the arena floor on the north end. It offers premium seating with the luxury one would find in their own home. The 350-seat Acela Club restaurant on the south end overlooks both the main rink and AmeriHealth Pavilion. The restaurant offers an extensive wine collection unrivaled among North American arenas.

The focal point of the seating bowl is an eight-sided, multi-level, center-hung scoreboard featuring four primary high-definition 16:9 video screens. Two full-color LED rings, and eight additional rectangular screens complete the 65,000-pound, 30-foot tall by 32-foot wide scoreboard. A 940-foot display circles the lower arena bowl, while four additional horizontal displays line the upper level.

Some of Prudential Center's best features are its ultra-wide concourses which allow for ease of movement, and an array of superb food options (including the first gluten-free offerings in an arena). Carefully designed sightlines create spectacular views from every seat while giving visitors an intimate feel for the action.

The fan experience begins outside Prudential Center in Championship Plaza, a brick-paved, fan message-driven courtyard. Championship Plaza features a 22-foot tall, three-ton, metal "Ironman" hockey player statue and live entertainment with a block-party atmosphere during FanFest celebrations.

1994-95 STANLEY CUP CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

- The Devils' .542 regular-season winning percentage was the lowest for a Stanley Cup Champion since Toronto went 32-27-11 (.536) in 1966-67.
- The club started all of its playoff series on the road; no other champion had accomplished that feat since the 16-team playoff format was introduced in 1979-80. The 1966-67 Maple Leafs were the last team to start all of their playoff series on the road. In 1966-67, just four clubs qualified for the playoffs, and there were just two rounds.
- New Jersey went 10-1 on the road in the playoffs. The 10 wins are an NHL record (since tied).
- The Devils became the sixth NHL club to win a championship in their first Stanley Cup Finals appearance, and the first ever to sweep.

JERSEY DEVIL NAME & LEGEND

After it was announced in May of 1982 that the Colorado Rockies franchise was moving to New Jersey, several state newspapers ran a contest asking readers for their nickname suggestions.

So why Devils? Said Devils' founder, the late Dr. John J. McMullen, at the time, "It's a great nickname because it combines the folklore of South Jersey with the Meadowlands."

For those unfamiliar with the legend, the New Jersey Devil dates back some 250 years. While there are many variations of the story, it most frequently begins with Mrs. Leeds, a farm woman from the Pine Barrens region of South Jersey. Already the mother of 12 children, when Mrs. Leeds found out that the 13th was on the way, she apparently exclaimed in despair, "Let it be a devil!"

In addition to being a busy mother, it should be noted that Mrs. Leeds was rumored to have dabbled in sorcery and many thought her to be a witch. On the night of her delivery in 1735, fierce thunderstorms hit the area and an air of uneasiness surrounded her house. When she finally gave birth, the offspring was a demonic creature that has alternately been reported to have had the features of a bat, snake, kangaroo, as well as a man. In any case, the creature quickly flew out an open window and immediately began cutting a wide swath of havoc and destruction throughout the state.

The legend has been fueled through the years by alleged sightings. The devil has been the object of numerous hunts and other pursuits, none of which have apparently been successful.

NEW JERSEY DEVILS

WHILE AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

SPORTS & THE ARTS

Prudential Center includes original abstract, contemporary and figurative paintings created by the renowned artists of Los Angeles, CA-based Sports & the Arts, and have been selected from across the United States and Canada.

The 200-foot wide by 30-foot high free-form mural on the west side of Prudential Center's Grand Concourse was created on site by artist Tom Mosser, and depicts local points of interest, architecture and teams. The mural is titled "Impressionistic Realism," and features artwork that captures the essence of New Jersey's sports and entertainment history.

AMERIHEALTH PAVILION AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

On September 11, 2008, the Devils' practice facility was formally introduced as "AmeriHealth Pavilion at Prudential Center," during a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Among those in attendance were: former Devils' Chairman/Managing Partner Jeff Vanderbeek; former Co-owner Mike Gilfillan; AmeriHealth New Jersey President/CEO Judith L. Roman; and Vice President, Sales/Marketing Mike Munoz.

Prudential Center remains one of just two NHL arenas with a practice rink, and the only building with dual locker rooms/training facilities. The AmeriHealth Pavilion at Prudential Center's logo sign at the Lafayette/Mulberry Street entrance was unveiled during the program.

CHAMPIONSHIP PLAZA

Construction of Prudential Center's Championship Plaza, an outdoor area celebrating the rich 32-year history and tradition of the New Jersey Devils, began on July 22, 2009. Located across from PNC Bank Tower on Mulberry Street between Edison Place and Market Street in Newark, it has become the gathering place for Devils' fans before and after each game.

The centerpiece of Championship Plaza is an in-ground, 60-foot in diameter Devils' logo. Constructed of granite, the logo is surrounded by pieces of stone commemorating each of the team's three Stanley Cup Championships. A 22-foot tall, 7,000-pound, stainless steel hockey player statue, sculpted by New Jersey native Jon Krawczyk, graces the north end of the plaza on Market Street. Championship Plaza also include bricks recognizing the team's 1987-88 Patrick Division Playoff Championship, five Eastern Conference Championships and eight Atlantic Division titles.

Centered along Mulberry Street is a solid granite, custom-sculpted Prudential Rock. Prudential Financial's well-known brand symbol was inspired by the Rock of Gibraltar, and represents the company's strength, stability and financial security. Prudential has been part of the Newark community since its founding in 1875.

Devils' fans have the opportunity to purchase a limited number of commemorative bricks that can be inscribed with a personalized message. The bricks are installed in and around Championship Plaza's elements and are available in two sizes: 4"x 8" and 8"x 8."

DEVILS CARE

Through the creation of the Devils Care Foundation, the Devils and Prudential Center help support more than 800 non-profits in New Jersey. These include local and statewide programs that promote education, health and well-being, and the game of hockey.

Devils Care has a mission to positively impact the lives of children and adults in New Jersey. The foundation focuses on programs with a proven track record in the state that benefit New Jersey residents.

Devils Care contributed to Superstorm Sandy recovery efforts by donating over 2,000 pounds of food, 6,700 blankets and towels and 2,400 pieces of clothing to different relief organizations throughout New Jersey, including the State of New Jersey's aid distribution center at Monmouth Racetrack.

The Devils' mascot, NJ Devil, visited shelters and first responders, helping to deliver donations and assist with food and clothing drives. The Devils created a Superstorm Sandy Central web page with up-to-date information on relief and clean-up efforts.

ULTIMATE FAN OPPORTUNITIES

The Devils and Prudential Center held three online raffles for fans to win an Ultimate Day with the Devils, an Ultimate Kids Birthday with the Devils, and the Ultimate Rolling Stones 50 & Counting Experience. The raffles raised over $20,000 for Sandy charities.

Mystery Puck Night gave fans the opportunity to purchase a puck signed by Devils' players for a donation of $20. Five hundred pucks were signed and sold with all proceeds going to Sandy relief.

HOCKEY GAMES THAT HELP

The Global Hockey Legends Game between North American and Russian Hockey Legends at Prudential Center helped raise more than $50,000 to benefit the Hurricane Sandy New Jersey Relief Fund founded by New Jersey First Lady Mary Pat Christie. NHL/Devils alumni Ken Daneyko, Bruce Driver, Grant Marshall, Jim Dowd, Sergei Brylin, Bill Guerin, Claude Lemieux, Randy McKay, Stephane Richer and Brendan Shanahan all took part in the April game, which drew over 6,000 fans to the Rock.

Devils' Head Coach Peter DeBoer spearheaded a Devils Alumni charity game versus the New Jersey Colonials at Mennen Ice Arena in Morristown. Former Devils, including Scott Stevens, Chris Terreri, Ken Daneyko, Bruce Driver, Sergei Brylin and John MacLean all hit the ice to help raise over $30,000 in funds.

TUMBLING AHEAD WITH HOPE

When the Kellogg's Tour of Gymnastics Champions visited the Rock in November 2012, USA Gymnastics and Prudential Center teamed up to visit two shelters in Essex County and aid a distribution center in Hoboken to thank volunteers and lend a helping hand organizing donations prior to the show.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Devils Alumni Association was formed to bring together former Devils' players for enjoyable civic activities and charitable fund-raisers and charity/community service programs, and to develop means to help promote amateur hockey.

Each year, Devils' alumni make visits throughout the community on behalf of the team. This season, former Devils Ken Daneyko, Jim Dowd, Bruce Driver and Grant Marshall made over 100 appearances throughout New Jersey. These include trips to local businesses, schools, youth centers and sports banquets.

ICE CLINICS

Through various rink partnerships, the Devils' alumni perform one-hour on-ice clinics at local rinks. Ken Daneyko, Jim Dowd, Bruce Driver and Grant Marshall travel to local rinks and teach children various drills and techniques to better their hockey skills.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The New Jersey Devils Alumni Association scholarship is a yearly award given to four graduating high school student-athletes in recognition of their continued success both on and off of the ice.

Winners of this award receive a $2,500 scholarship to help support their higher education costs at the college or university of their choice.

This year's honorees were: Allison Aiello, Maplewood, NJ (Morristown-Beard School/Middlebury College), Nicholas Auriemma, Brick, NJ (Brick Township/Boston College), Ketul Patel, Kendall Park, NJ (South Brunswick/Vanderbilt) and James Potter, Union, NJ (Seton Hall Prep/Boston College).

Potential candidates must be nominated by their athletic director or coach and comply with the Scholarship Rules, which include the following criteria: Through the most recent grading period, the student must have attained a high school cumulative grade-point average of 2.5 (on a 4.0 grading system) or equivalent grade if the student's school uses a different grading system; and the student must be accepted for admission on a full-time matriculating basis to a two or four year academic program at an accredited post-secondary collegiate educational institution.

YOUTH HOCKEY

NHL TOP PROSPECTS CLINIC

Twenty-five local youth hockey players representing Hockey In Newark and the New Jersey Rockets skated with the top four North American prospects in the NHL Top Prospects Clinic at AmeriHealth Pavilion in June.

Held on the eve of the 2013 NHL Entry Draft at Prudential Center, the event featured youth players in an on-ice session with Nathan MacKinnon (1st overall, Colorado), Jonathan Drouin (3rd overall, Tampa Bay), Seth Jones (4th overall, Nashville) and Darnell Nurse (7th overall, Edmonton). They were joined by Devils' alumni Ken Daneyko, Jim Dowd, Bruce Driver and Grant Marshall.

STREET DEVILS

Street Devils was established in 1997 in partnership with the NHL to make hockey more accessible to New Jersey children and to provide local communities with a youth sports program that promotes education, sportsmanship and fitness through participation in hockey. The program has seen over 50,000 children participate over the past 16 years.

Devils' alumni clinics have helped its reach – over 125 organizations have participated in the program since its inception. The Devils provide these centers with donations of street hockey gear and equipment.

HOCKEY IN NEWARK

As part of the NHL's Hockey is for Everyone initiative, Hockey In Newark is a non-profit organization committed to offering the game of hockey to Newark youth, regardless of their backgrounds or abilities. Over 200 children have taken part in their programming this year, and over 1,000 since its creation in 2003.

The Devils' commitment to the program was exemplified by teaming up with the NHLPA to donate 50 sets of brand new equipment to Hockey In Newark. The sets of equipment included brand new helmets, shoulder pads, gloves, hockey pants, shin guards and skates.

NEW JERSEY YOUTH HOCKEY CENTRAL

New Jersey Youth Hockey Central, presented by AmeriHealth New Jersey, is devoted to providing insight into what is going on with youth hockey in the state of New Jersey, from mite through high school. The Devils were the first NHL team to include a page on their official website providing all state high school hockey standings and statistics. It also features stories highlighting players, coaches and programs that are making a difference in the community they serve.

NJSIAA HIGH SCHOOL VARSITY ICE HOCKEY

The New Jersey State High School Ice Hockey Championships and the Championship luncheon are hosted at Prudential Center each year. The 2013 tournament champions were Delbarton School (Non-Public), Randolph (Public A) and Chatham (Public B).

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYERS OF THE MONTH PROGRAM CELEBRATES 20TH SEASON

The New Jersey Devils High School Players of the Month program honors seven athletes, one from each of seven different conferences, every month from December through February. Winners are based on nominations received from coaches throughout the state and voted on by local media. Award winners and their guests receive tickets to a Devils' home game, a plaque presented by a Devils' player and dinner compliments of the Devils.

AMERIHEALTH YOUTH MARQUEE MATCH-UP

The AmeriHealth Youth Marquee Match-Up provides the opportunity to fulfill the dreams of New Jersey boys and girls by playing on Prudential Center's ice. To date, over 3,500 youth players have taken part in the contests, which are played during the first intermission of Devils home games.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

BRIGHTENING UP CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL OF NEW JERSEY

Prudential Center teamed up with Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey to re-design the waiting room at the Pediatric Health Center of the Children's Hospital of New Jersey at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center. Based on the theme of Built to Amaze!, the waiting room was transformed into a first-of-its-kind, circus theme with children in mind.

In addition to unveiling the new room, the Reading with Ringling program was introduced into the Pediatric Center's existing reading initiative. The world-famous Ringling Bros. Clown Alley visited with children throughout the hospital bringing smiles and cheer.

MDA MUSCLE TEAM GALA

Now celebrating its 16th year, MDA's Muscle Team is a high-profile sports dinner where professional athletes join each other to put their muscle behind the search to find treatments and cures for muscle diseases. Each athlete is paired with an MDA Buddy, a local child living with muscular dystrophy. NJ Devil helped in this year's celebration, bringing his own special charm and cheer to everyone in attendance.

HOSPITAL VISITS

Every year, the Devils visit the pediatric wards of New Jersey hospitals to spread holiday cheer. In 2012, members of the executive and coaching staff and NJ Devil visited St. Barnabas Medical Center (Livingston, NJ), Hackensack University Medical Center (Hackensack, NJ), Robert Wood Johnson Medical Center (New Brunswick, NJ), Holy Name Medical Center (Teaneck, NJ), University Hospital (Newark, NJ), St. Joseph's Regional Medical Center (Paterson, NJ), Morristown Memorial (Morristown, NJ) and Overlook (Summit, NJ).

HONORING A HERO EVERY GAME

Prudential Center and the Devils proudly support our nation's military. The American Patriot Program works with NHL teams throughout the season to honor the sacrifices of our Nation's Purple Heart recipients.

In partnership with Prudential, the Devils highlight a hero during every home game of the season. Last season, the team honored Staff Sargent Clinton Romesha, who was awarded the Medal of Honor for his heroic actions during a daylong attack on his outpost in Afghanistan.

EDUCATION

READ ACROSS AMERICA

The Devils join schools across the United States each spring in celebrating Read Across America. Players, alumni, and broadcasters visit local schools in an effort to promote literacy and education by reading to elementary school children.

This year, members of the Devils Alumni Association, including Jim Dowd, Bruce Driver and Grant Marshall participated in Read Across America by traveling across the state of New Jersey to appear in classrooms to read to children and promote the importance of reading in schools.

COLLEGE RADIO NIGHT

The Devils hosted their second annual College Radio Night on April 1, featuring 24 students from 13 colleges and universities.

The event, in conjunction with College Radio Day, affords college students the opportunity to embark on a rare learning experience. This year's event was highlighted by a panel discussion with several key members of the radio and television broadcast teams for the Devils and gave students the chance to cover a Devils' home game.

NEWARK PUBLIC SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

The Devils remain supportive of children's success in school, as the team's Honor Roll program continued this year to recognize Newark students' hard work and dedication to their education.

Students in the Newark Public School system have the opportunity to earn free Devils' tickets based on their grade-point averages ranging from one semester to an entire year. More than 18,000 tickets have been distributed in the five years of the program.

COMMUNITY PRIDE

DRESSING UP

Devils and Prudential Center employees came together to help the local community in the inaugural Devils Care Dressing Up clothing drive.

Families from over a dozen local area non-profits were invited into Prudential Center to "shop," share in holiday cheer, visit with NJ Devil and enjoy refreshments. More than 7,500 pieces of clothing were collected and distributed to more than 300 local families.

NHL GREEN LEGACY TREE PROJECT

As part of the NHL's commitment to preserve and support the local environments of host cities for NHL events, NHL Green's Legacy Tree Project made its mark at the 2013 NHL Entry Draft. In cooperation with Devils Care, the NHL Foundation donated 30 trees to represent each league team's commitment to sustainability.

This year's project planted cherry trees near pear trees, creating an aesthetic at the plaza reminiscent of vintage Devils' colors, with green foliage accompanied by red and white blossoms. The cherry trees will neighbor the south side of Prudential Center.

ASSIST: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

GOALS-AGAINST AVERAGE: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

GOALTENDER: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY-KILLING PERCENTAGE: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

PLUS-MINUS: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

POWER-PLAY GOAL: A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

POWER-PLAY PERCENTAGE: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

SHORTHAND GOAL: A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

SHUTOUT: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

COACHES RECORD: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

2013-14 NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE ALIGNMENT

On March 14, 2013, the National Hockey League's Board of Governors approved realignment and a division-based format for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, effective for the 2013-14 season. The realignment plan creates two eight-team divisions in the Eastern Conference and two seven-team divisions in the Western Conference.

The new alignment will place several clubs in more geographically-appropriate groupings and will intensify already-fierce rivalries throughout the league. The new scheduling matrix will ensure that all 30 teams play in all 30 arenas at least once a season.

WESTERN CONFERENCE

Pacific	Central
Anaheim	Chicago
Calgary	Colorado
Edmonton	Dallas
Los Angeles	Minnesota
Phoenix	Nashville
San Jose	St. Louis
Vancouver	Winnipeg

EASTERN CONFERENCE

Metropolitan	Atlantic
Carolina	Boston
Columbus	Buffalo
New Jersey	Detroit
NY Islanders	Florida
NY Rangers	Montreal
Philadelphia	Ottawa
Pittsburgh	Tampa Bay
Washington	Toronto

NEW REGULAR-SEASON SCHEDULE MATRIX

Western Conference (7-team divisions)
Within conference (division): 29 games
- 5 games vs. five teams AND 4 games vs. one team. Teams rotated on a yearly basis.

Within conference (non-division): 21 games
- 3 games vs. each team. Teams rotated on a yearly basis.
  (exception: 1 team from each div. plays 1 less game inside div. & 1 more game inside conf. outside div.).

Non-conference: 32 games
- 2 games vs. each team

Eastern Conference (8-team divisions)
Within conference (division): 30 games
- 5 games vs. two teams AND 4 games vs. five teams. Teams rotated on a yearly basis.

Within conference (non-division): 24 games
- 3 games vs. each team. Teams rotated on a yearly basis.

Non-conference: 28 games
- 2 games vs. each team.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF FORMAT

Playoff qualification will be primarily division-based, with the top three finishers in each division qualifying for the first 12 spots in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (and the first three "seeds" in each division).

The two additional playoff spots in each conference, designated as "Wild Cards," will be awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each conference, ranked on the basis of regular-season points and regardless of division.

"Seeding" of the Wild Card teams within each divisional playoff will be determined on the basis of regular-season points. The first-place finisher with the highest number of regular-season points in the conference will be matched against the Wild Card team with the lowest number of regular-season points, and the first-place finisher with the second-highest number of regular-season points in the conference matched against the Wild Card team with the second-lowest number of regular-season points.

The playoffs will proceed as follows:
- #1 vs. #4 / #2 vs. #3 – winners play each other for berth in conference championship.
- Conference finals – two advancing teams in the West and two advancing teams in the East meet in conference championship.
- Eastern and Western Conference Champions will meet in Stanley Cup Finals.

The NHLPA has given its consent to play under this new alignment and playoff system for a minimum of three seasons, through the 2015-16 NHL season.
